Stella Andrews.

Upon advice from the Lawyer who wrote the booklet "Our Higher Ancestors", and he is having this notes copyrighted, he advised me to have mine mimeographed and copyrighted which ~~was~~ ^{is} being done. So this is notice that any that I have, or was copied from my records or notes are not to be used in any way or sold to genealogist or historical society, and of those records of mine that, that four square religious fabrication with long fingers carried off were copied by anyone, they better be returned or destroyed, but of course I would not know if it had been done unless they were searched, and the packet written by Rev. Higley that was sent to me I would like to have it. I haven't yet found a name that fits anyone who forces their way in by trickery, by going to different floors. determined to get what I worked for to make use of myself. just because they knew I had it. They were going to cut it. Well was writing the history.

There are already three writing it. But must have thought he was the only one could. And I was the one to furnish the facts. doesn't even have his own grandfather right. I can see those eyes yet the way they agitated and gleamed at me. when he thought he was put ing some thing over on me. The position he got himself into when he told that fabrication about the center. The political and religious disturbances in Germany he had just read in the book "Our ancestors" and the meeting at a broth meeting the book would have had an Indian with that would have been the meeting. and a conf-meeting a religious meeting when the others had to carry guns to the fields to protect them closer and have guards to watch and warn them when Indians were coming of course he would bare it at the Legion meeting. That is his pass he wears it as a cloak. the only thing I thought was reasonable was burying himself to work for his passage. that was done. I know where they came from the promoter and agent. I and where they settled when they came any thing else was ridiculous fabrication to divert my mind from those records ~~could~~ could carry them off. I would forget he had them. But he says his father told him well he must be a fabulator. even when I asked how he came to write the story to think about writing it. I should say. I wrote a Mordel right. The letter was not returned and it was not answered. I am sure that letter put the notion in the renegades head and brought him to hunt up the balance I had. and peeping into my window looking all around. looked like a thief in the night. I wouldn't trust any one who gets off that stunt. then about those agitated eye up to the window to see if he was over. It's always been my idea of well bred persons that when the bell is rung or knock not answered after the second time that there is a reason that they are not home or for some reason it does not suit to have visitors, but to bang and try the door and balcony and come back and bang some more, then come back at night and put up a dirty trick. I know it was very enjoyable. I can hear the snickers. The fun you were having.

but that is being far above religion since air twice explained it in "Oil" only he has left out much he should have told. so I have been told by some one who knew when they know them I'm reading it. I can also say Martha Potter never kept a saloon in Sweden she had a tavern and kept boarders and Josephson sold "grog" but it was not in Prid. and the person who he says stopped it. she should have done some thing about the Barton saloon.
Again I don't to give warning that my notes or records, any thing that was gotten at my expense are not to be used. if necessary I will have legal notice given. You letter notify this unnecessary?
